

6516206195.txt

Please let me express my displeasure with current attempts to limit the content of xm satellite radio. It is a great service to the community in which local traffic and weather is provided information on continually changing conditions. All this without having to listen to nonpertanent local programming to get the information I want. I currently do not have local traffic and weather in the Cincinnati metro area but I am looking forward to the time when it will be available.